

AI Tools List

A roundup of widely used AI tools, grouped by what they do.

Chat Assistants and General AI

Tool	Made by	What it's good for
Claude	Anthropic	Writing, analysis, coding, research
ChatGPT	OpenAI	General-purpose assistant
Gemini	Google	Assistant built into Google's apps
Microsoft Copilot	Microsoft	Assistant across Windows and Microsoft 365
Perplexity	Perplexity AI	AI search engine that answers with cited sources

Coding

Tool	What it's good for
Claude Code	Agentic coding from the terminal, desktop, or IDE
GitHub Copilot	Code completion and chat inside editors
Cursor	AI-first code editor
Replit	Build and deploy apps in the browser with AI help

Image Generation and Design

Tool	What it's good for
Midjourney	Artistic, high-quality image generation
DALL·E / ChatGPT image generation	Images from text prompts
Adobe Firefly	Generative tools built into Photoshop and Illustrator
Canva AI	Quick designs, presentations, and social posts
Stable Diffusion	Open-source image models you can run yourself

Video and Audio

Tool	What it's good for
Runway	AI video generation and editing
Sora (OpenAI) / Veo (Google)	Text-to-video models
Synthesia / HeyGen	AI avatar presenter videos
ElevenLabs	Realistic voice generation and dubbing
Suno / Udio	AI music generation
Descript	Edit audio and video by editing the transcript

Writing and Productivity

Tool	What it's good for
Grammarly	Grammar checking and rewriting
Notion AI	Writing and summaries inside Notion
Otter.ai / Fireflies.ai	Meeting transcription and notes
Gamma	AI-generated presentations and documents

Research and Learning

Tool	What it's good for
NotebookLM (Google)	Chat with your own documents and generate audio overviews
Elicit / Consensus	Find and summarize academic papers

Automation

Tool	What it's good for
Zapier AI / Make	Connect apps and automate workflows
n8n	Open-source workflow automation with AI steps

Note: The AI tools landscape changes quickly. New tools launch often, so check each tool's website for current features and pricing.